

PUBLISHER: EBW a Moore Digital Media Imprint
PUB DATE: 4/24/2025
SOFT COVER: $17.99
ISBN: 9781644141113
PAGES: 372
GENRE: Psychological Thriller

Aime Austin was born in Brooklyn, New York, and graduated from Smith College and Cornell Law School. She is the author of the Casey Cort and Nicole Long series of legal thriller, and is the host of the podcast, A Time to Thrill. Before writing full-time, Aime practiced family and criminal law in Cleveland, Ohio. When she's not writing crime fiction or interviewing brilliant creators, she's in a yoga pose, knitting, or reading. Aime currently splits her time between Los Angeles and Budapest.

HIS LAST MISTRESS

BY AIME AUSTIN

DESCRIPTION

In a world where love blurs lines and loyalty is tested, Lulu Mueller finds herself at a crossroads. For years, it's been a waiting game anticipating Richard Sinclair leaving his wife for her. But as the dust settles on their affair, Lulu realizes that Richard's promises may have been built on a foundation of lies. Caught between desire and doubt, Lulu grapples with the consequences of her actions. With her dreams of partnership slipping away and her once-perfect romance crumbling, she must confront the truth about the man she thought she knew. But when a woman turns up dead, accusations fly. As suspicions mount and alliances shift, legal eagles Casey Cort and Nicole Long are thrust into the fray. Can they set aside their differences to untangle the web of deceit and uncover the truth before it's too late?

KEY SELLING POINTS

- This is an excellent pick for book clubs with an interest in discussing thrillers laced with social issues such as domestic violence, mental health, and the intricacies of relationships
- This will appeal to audiences in major markets such as NYC and LA, given the author's personal ties to these areas
- The author has been recognized as an award-winning crime writer and podcast host
- Falls within bestselling genres including romance, psychological thrillers, murder mysteries, and legal thrillers
- For fans of Miranda Cowley Heller and Kay Hooper

MARKETING

- The author will promote the book through email messaging, social media, and word of mouth marketing
- The author is the host of a popular podcast called A Time to Thrill and will cross promote the book through this audience
- Publicity efforts led by Spellbound PR, a renowned public relations firm that will coordinate author events, a podcast tour, and media coverage
- The author is an active participant in relevant organizations and will promote the book through these groups
- The author welcomes the opportunity to develop talks and presentations for bookstore events, festivals, panels, and conferences

MEDIA CONTACT

For all media and event queries please contact:

Hannah Larrew

Phone: 919.636.1322

Email : hannah@spellboundpublicrelations.com

 aimeaustin.com